Senator Gallinger yesterday introduced a bill covering all the essential points in track extension plan, which had been prepared by the District Commisioners. A few moments after the bill had been introduced Senator Hansbrough, of North Dakota, reintroduced two of the amendments which were attached to the bill of last year, providing for a system of the plan. universal transfers and for a franchise tax to cover all the public service corporations of the District.

Gallinger Hopes to Win.

Senator Gallinger, who has been giving much time and study to the question of Commissioners' bill met his views, and that he hoped it would pass. In introducing it he told the Senate that he considered it a measure of immediate impor tance not only to the people of Washington, but to the entire country as well e Washington is a city to which all roads lead.
